

GENDER

Journal for Gender, Culture and Society

Movement/s. Contributions to the 5th Annual Conference of the Gender Studies Association

	Preface and acknowledgement	9
Susanne Völker	Movement/s: Configurations and dynamics. An introduction	8

Conference Proceedings

Christine Buchwald, Sebastian Grieser, Elaine Lauwaert	"Movement/s". Annual Conference of the Gender Studies Association, University of Bielefeld, 13/14 February 2015	29
--	---	----

Movement/s

Imke Schmincke	From emancipation to empowerment? The effects of feminism as evidenced in statements made by young students in 1981 and 2012	37
Elaine Lauwaert	Between identity politics and merging in the normative binary sex/gender system – reflections on political strategies of trans* movements in Germany in the 1980s based on an analysis of two newspapers	48
Lisa Pfahl, Swantje Köbsell	From "crip women" to "disability and mad pride". The limits and visibility of gender and disability	59
Ulrike Klöppel	The AIDS crisis in Germany revisited: between biopolitics and affect politics	73
Esther Mader	Collective and accumulative agency through affective connections	86
Marcel Wrzesinski	Between radicalism and utopia. Separatist tendencies in feminist manifestos of the 1960s	97

Eike Marten	Overcoming and appropriation as influential narratives in the academic discussion about the relation between diversity and gender	108
Florian Cristobal Klenk, Lisa-Marie Langendorf	Pedagogical gender competence: Ambivalences of a dazzling term	120
Kathrin Ganz	Subject positions in social movements: Conflicts and entanglements between the digital rights movement and online feminism	133

Forum

Tomke König	Exchange and debates regarding the attacks on gender research. Report on the forum on strategies for dealing with antifeminism, University of Bielefeld, 14 February 2015	143
-------------	---	-----