

GENDERZeitschrift für Geschlecht,
Kultur und Gesellschaft

Introduction 7

Essays	Intersectionality and Social Work – Reconstructions, analyses and reflections Denise Bergold-Caldwell, Christiane Bomert, Judith Conrads, Christine Riegel (Eds.)
Lalitha Chamakalayil, Oxana Ivanova- Chessex	(Un)heard critique – intersectional reflections on parental negotiations in the context of postcolonial Switzerland	11
Robel Afeworki Abay, Julia Cholewa, Annette Korntheuer	Empirical intersectionality research caught between the reconstruction, deconstruction and reproduction of social exclusion	26
Steffen Loick Molina, Laura Meijer	Intersectionality as a craft tool? An analysis of the use of the term “intersectionality” in the “Live Democracy!” federal programme	40
Ioanna Menhard	Empowerment and power-sharing as options for concretizing intersectional perspectives in (open) child and youth work	56
Sannik Ben Dehler	On the (im)possibility of conducting intersec- tional research. Developing a questionnaire to reflect on epistemic violence	71

Essays	Open Part
Andrea Messner	“Some who know little of history ...” Lucrezia Marinella’s La Nobiltà (1600/1601) – women’s history as counter-history	88

Sabine Gabriel, Patrick Leinhos	Dateability?! Desire and gender constructions in dating app infrastructures	100
Nadine N. Başer, Sylka Scholz	Male adolescents' hidden desire for a caring mother-son relationship – a critique of the societal devaluation of mothers and femininity	122
Karen Nolte	"Broken coil" – an object-centred history of contraception and female reproductive self-determination practices in 1930s Germany	138

Book Reviews

Karin Flaake	Reinhard Winter, 2022: Porno, Sex und Männlichkeit. Wie junge Männer ihre Sexualität schaffen	156
Edda Mack	Christel Balthes-Löhr, 2023: Geschlecht als Kontinuum. Über das Aufbrechen binärer Ordnungen und über gelebte Pluralitäten	159
Anne Schlüter	Maike Wagenaar, 2023: Das Frauen- und Mutterbild im Nationalsozialismus und seine Auswirkungen bis heute. Eine sozialpsychologische Untersuchung zu unbewussten Übernahmen	162
Andreas Schulz-Tomančok	Dorothee Beck/Adriano José Habed/Annette Henninger (Hrsg.), 2024: Blurring Boundaries – 'Anti-Gender' Ideology Meets Feminist and LGBTIQ+ Discourses	165